PALAZZO DEL SOL

A World Apart

Fisher Island, 1936

The History

ONCE UPON A TIME IN AMERICA

When early 20th-century A-listers wanted to get away from it all, they escaped to places like Long Island's Gold Coast, Newport, Rhode Island or The Berkshires. Following the path of Henry Flagler's trailblazing East Coast Railroad, they eventually migrated south to Palm Beach, and then to Miami.

They heard the sirens call of the American Tropics. Boldface names like Astor, Firestone, Woolworth, Pillsbury, Singer, Penney, Maytag, Honeywell... and William K. Vanderbilt II, who famously traded his 250-foot yacht, The Eagle, for seven acres of an island off the edge of Miami owned by auto-parts magnate Carl Fisher.

They called it Fisher Island, but the Vanderbilts also called it home – at least during the cool winter months.

From the beginning, Fisher Island was a place apart: a private compound imbued with the spirit of Escape & Exclusivity... of finding yourself in a perfect world of your own creation. Today, with the addition of Palazzo del Sol – and after a $60 million renovation of the Island's infrastructure and extensive amenities – Fisher Island remains an Elite Refuge, this time for entertainers, entrepreneurs and a global community of movers, shakers and achievers. True Luxury, after all, is timeless.

Palazzo Del Sol is a Six-Star, 10-story Residential Condominium located where Biscayne Bay meets the Atlantic Ocean. Here, on a 4.5-acre waterfront site, a piece of paradise has been reserved exclusively for the new residents of Palazzo Del Sol.

The building has been designed by Kobi Karp – one of the starchitects of the Miami architecture scene – and consists of 47 residences featuring private elevators, immense outdoor terraces, Boffi kitchens and baths, 10-foot interior ceilings, and penthouses with 15-foot ceilings. Space and light abound. Classic and modern morph into an entirely new tropical island experience.

Inspired by the idea of indoor/outdoor connectivity, Palazzo Del Sol's team of architects and designers has created a welcome experience like no other. Upon entering the South Lobby, residents will be greeted by a concierge, whose expertise extends to services both on and off the Island. Should you desire a brief interlude over a cappuccino from our Aperitivo Bar, you can linger in the spacious and gracious North Lounge, where white-glove Butler Services are provided daily.

The North Lounge opens directly onto the Terrace Lounge, a covered outdoor relaxation area with remarkable views of South Beach and Downtown Miami, and where cruise ships ply the waters of Government Cut as they glide to and from the Port of Miami.

A premium Waterfront Site on an exclusive Private Island that's accessible only by private yacht or ferry. Ultra-Luxe Residences with unobstructed views of the Atlantic Ocean, South Beach, Biscayne Bay and Downtown Miami. Proximity to the hotspots of South Beach and to the cultural megazones that are the Design District, Wynwood and the downtown Arts & Entertainment District. Palazzo Del Sol puts all the cosmopolitan pleasures and treasures within reach. As The New York Times once noted of Fisher Island:

"There are a few tropical island retreats these days where one can be cut off from the world and still be close to civilization."

Civilization, these days, means the Cesar Pelli-designed Adrienne Arsht Center for The Performing Arts, the bayfront American Airlines Arena (home to the Miami Heat basketball champions), the world-class Perez Art Museum Miami (designed by Herzon & de Meuron), the new Miami Science Museum, the 17-acre South Pointe Park (designed by Hargreaves & Associates) and, of course, the hottest South Beach restaurants like Il Mulino, Milos, Red the Steakhouse, Prime 112 and the ever-popular Joe's Stone Crab.

INTERIOR DESIGN

Drawing inspiration from the classic concept of the enfilade as well as the prominence of Palazzo del Sol's waterfront location, A+R has reinterpreted the Italian palazzo by injecting modern design into traditional architectural forms, never losing the vital connection between the interior and exterior as one space opens seamlessly to the next, and you find yourself casually sipping a cappuccino or an aperitivo while overlooking Government Cut and the South Beach skyline.

"No detail is overlooked in the accumulation of exceptional parts that create a dynamic whole."

Known for her design work for celebrity clients and their trophy waterfront properties, Alison Antrobus (and her business partner Ruby Ramirez) goes beyond a commitment to any one signature style and instead takes a holistic approach to the design process. No detail is overlooked in the accumulation of exceptional parts that create a dynamic whole.

Fisher Island

AN UNMATCHED COMBINATION OF LUXURY, PRIVACY, SECURITY, EXCLUSIVITY & GLAMOUR

Fisher Island is a celebrated private island off the shores of Miami Beach, Florida — a self-contained 5-Star residential community with serious upscale credentials. Often cited as one of the wealthiest zip codes in America, it offers an unmatched combination of luxury, privacy, security, exclusivity and glamour.

Its 216 acres of exquisitely designed and maintained greenspaces offer an oasis-like respite from the rigors of modern life, attracting families from around the world, including the United States, South America, Europe, Russia, the Middle East and Asia.

Set in this magical landscape are the individual residential enclaves, each discreetly distanced from one another and surrounded by the World-Class Fisher Island amenities. Among them are two marinas, a 9-hole golf course, 18 professional-grade Tennis Courts, over a mile of pristine white sand beaches, a world-class spa, a boutique hotel (rated one of "The Leading Hotels of The World"), a gourmet market and six dining venues to suit any palate and every occasion.

Take a walk on the mild side in over a mile of private Seaside Beach. This scenic and uncrowded sanctuary is lapped by gentle waves from the Atlantic Ocean on pristine white sand imported directly from the Bahamas. Reserved for the exclusive use of residents and Fisher Island Club Members, the private beach is a place to lose yourself — without getting lost. It is also a perfect place to try your hand at America's fastest-growing sport — paddle-boarding. Or do what you've always wanted to do — absolutely nothing at all.

The Beach Club

THE MOST POPULAR SPOT ON THE ISLAND

Easygoing and casually chic, *The Beach Club is ideal for swimming, sunbathing, relaxing and of course for outdoor dining and socializing. The Sushi Bar is a must, and end-of-day cocktails have a special allure when imbibed at the appropriately named Sunset Bar.

Tropical lounge music sets the tone of relaxed informality, while a uniformed staff attends to all your food and beverage needs, including service requests directly from the beach.

Set along the beach overlooking the Atlantic Ocean, The Beach Club reminds you of the glories of nature — and the joys of, say, a stirred martini or a perfectly prepared mimosa.

This is a convivial place to recess from stress, as the proverbial sun sets over Miami. Now you understand why they call it "The Magic City."

The Mansion

LIVE THE VANDERBILT WAY YOUR WAY

In the mid-1920s – while many of their well-heeled friends built their winter homes in Palm Beach – William K. Vanderbilt II and his wife Rosamund wintered in Miami Beach and lived on their yacht at Fisher Island. In 1936 they moved into the modest (by Vanderbilt standards) house designed by the famed Palm Beach architect Maurice Fatio, whose elegant yet functional plan consisted of a two-story main house, several guest cottages, a pump house and a seaplane hangar, which today houses Spa Internazionale.

This historically significant building has been restored to its original splendor and operates as part of Fisher Island Club, which includes the Garwood Lounge, the Mansion pool, corporate meeting and dining rooms, the Ballroom, the Snooker Club and City View Café, along with the Fisher Island Club Hotel & Resort, recently ranked #3 out of 401 properties among the Leading Hotels of the World and consisting of 6 Courtyard Villas, 4 historic cottages, and a 2000-sq. ft. Guest House with 5 Junior Suites. The Club's wine collection has recently been expanded by over 325 bottles and includes highly-rated Bordeaux 1st, 2nd and 3rd growths.
