A classic contemporary design in Miami's legendary bayshore village.

glasshaus

Founded by yachtsmen and made famous by artists, Coconut Grove's history is a story of free spirits, casual wealth and an unyielding preservation of natural beauty...

At the gateway to The Grove and the new Millionaire's Row.

Coconut Grove — so often featured in movies and songs — sits on the shore of Biscayne Bay just south of downtown Miami.

Where the picturesque streets of The Grove begin and tree-lined 27th Avenue runs down to the Bay, glasshaus stands as an iconic, elegant counterpart to the gleaming high-rise towers now lining the waterfront.

Treetops, not towers.

The soaring towers of Brickell Avenue and Bayshore Drive are just a few minutes away, but here at glasshaus your world unfolds at a different scale. With open panoramas of sunrise and sunset from your balcony. Soft breezes and fragrant flowers outside your windows. Every room is filled with fresh air and light. And all of your senses connected to your environment.

A private village sanctuary for less than two dozen owners. Two blocks from Biscayne Bay.

The private entrance to glasshaus is tucked away on Center Street, a shady lane in the heart of the Grove. From here you walk to your favorite restaurants and cafes, theaters and art galleries. A few blocks away you can dock your boat at famous Dinner Key Marina or the Coconut Grove Sailing Club — where every glasshaus owner is a welcomed member.

Bauhaus design meets Grove chic.

Modern minimalist design today owes its inspiration to Europe's famous Bauhaus design school, and glasshaus architecture follows the clean elegant style that invites natural light in.

The visitor entrance and lobby — created in textured stone, polished wood, burnished steel and panoramic glass — forms a natural complement to the lush greenery of its Grove setting.

A garden enclave in the trees. And the indoor-outdoor living that brings the world to us.

Walk out your lobby and enjoy a serene private garden and fountained sanctuary. Walk into the adjacent glass-walled fitness center.

Year-round indoor-outdoor living is something residents here take for granted, and these are just two of the private spaces you will treasure.

Escape to a rooftop resort.

Panoramic, 360-degree unobstructed views make the private rooftop an ideal escape for sun-drenched days and moonlit nights.

With an intimate setting reminiscent of a posh boutique hotel, glasshaus invites its small family of owners to enjoy their private pool and sundeck.

Entertain under the stars.

For weekend cook-outs and intimate private dinner parties, the fully-equipped summer kitchen is where you will join friends and family for special occasions and memorable evenings under the stars.

Together with the adjacent pool and sundeck, glasshaus residents enjoy an open-air sanctuary well-matched to the gardens and fitness center below.

An elegant canvas for your own decorating style.

From your skyline-view balcony to the elegantly-designed kitchen, the Great Room of your home is your showcase. The typical 40-foot expanse is where you'll create, dine, entertain and just kick-back, ensconced in your personal expression of perfection.

Tastefully appointed with all of these built-in features:

Each residence is delivered with fully-equipped Italkraft® kitchen and finished kitchen and baths, as well as your choice of flooring. Ready to be customized for your style and desires, your glasshaus home will be as unique as you are.
